

COMPLEMENTARY EXHIBITIONS

All exhibitions take place at the Hickory Museum of Art
FREE General Admission

JANUARY 9 THROUGH MAY 23
A CELEBRATION OF HERITAGE:

The Face and Voice of Latinos in the Catawba Valley
Local artist Clayton Joe Young takes the viewer on a photographic journey into the culture and heritage of Latinos in Western North Carolina. The artist interviewed his subjects and their words accompany the exhibition.

JANUARY 26 THROUGH MAY 2

- Refugee Voices of Catawba County: An Oral History
Short video vignettes highlighting the journeys and life experiences of local Asian refugees and immigrants.
- The Story of Freedom
Artwork by war affected children in Uganda created through an art therapy program, Freedom in Creation, that also helps children bring clean water to their community.
- ShelterBox on Display
See how you can help Rotary Club provide victims of disaster with shelter. Explore the contents of an actual ShelterBox that provides supplies for a family of 10.
- Patches of Life: Traditional Hmong Embroidery
Trace the Hmong refugee experience through beautiful handmade storycloths.
- Boy Scout Campsites: Then & Now
Compare a modern campsite to a typical site of 100 years ago, which is how many refugees live today.

COMPLEMENTARY PROGRAMS

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20 – FAMILY DAY
1 – 4 PM, Hickory Museum of Art, FREE Admission
Special art activities and guided tours of Torn From Home.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25 – FILM NIGHT
7 PM, Arts & Science Center Auditorium, FREE Admission
Screening of Being Hmong, Being Free. Discussion follows.

SUNDAY, MARCH 7
INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY PROGRAM
3 PM; Hickory Museum of Art
Recognition of successes and challenges of women in today's global marketplace.

TUESDAY, MARCH 9 – CLERGY BREAKFAST
Sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches
8:30 – 10 AM, Hickory Museum of Art

SATURDAY, MARCH 20 – FAMILY DAY
1 – 4 PM, Hickory Museum of Art, FREE Admission
Special art activities and guided tours of Torn From Home.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23 – FILM NIGHT

7 PM, Carolina Theatre (221 1st Ave NW, Hickory), FREE Admission
Screening of Rain in a Dry Land. Discussion follows.
Presented by HMA, HIC and Footcandle Film Society

THURSDAY, MARCH 25 – ROMANIAN BAPTIST CHOIR CONCERT

7 PM, Arts & Science Center Auditorium, FREE Admission
Refreshments and tours of Torn From Home: My Life as a Refugee to immediately follow concert.

SUNDAY, APRIL 18 – GALLERY TALK

CHAGALL AND THE BIBLE, Presented by Vivian Jacobsen
3 PM; Arts & Science Center Auditorium; FREE Admission
This slide presentation focuses on Marc Chagall's Bible Series and references his experiences as a refugee. A book signing, refreshments by the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Shalom, and tours of Torn From Home to immediately follow the talk.
Sponsored by Road Scholars Speakers Bureau, a program of the North Carolina Humanities Council.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23 – FILM NIGHT

7 PM, Shuford Gallery (1st floor of HMA), FREE Admission
(donations accepted at whichwayhome.net)
Screening of Which Way Home. Discussion follows.

SUNDAY, APRIL 25 – THE STORIES WE TELL: Crossing the Cultural Divide through Digital Storytelling

3 PM; Hickory Museum of Art; FREE Admission
Presented by Catawba Valley Community College

FRIDAY, APRIL 30 & SATURDAY, MAY 1
INTERNATIONAL SPRING FEST

Presented by Hickory International Council
Union Square in Downtown Hickory, FREE Admission

Friday Night	Saturday
Multicultural Dance Show	Vendors: 9 AM – 5 PM
7 – 9 PM	Entertainment: 10 AM – 3:30 PM

SATURDAY, MAY 1

ART ON THE AVENUE Family Festival
10 AM – 4 PM; SALT Block Central Lawn; FREE Admission
Arts & Crafts Booths, Food Vendors, Children's Art Activities & Cultural Entertainment.

SUNDAY, MAY 2 – CLOSING CELEBRATION

TORN FROM HOME: My Life as a Refugee
3 PM; Hickory Museum of Art; FREE Admission
The exhibition comes to a close with a special awards recognition ceremony.

ATTENTION ALL SCOUTS!

Boy Scouts & Girl Scouts who explore the exhibition Torn From Home in uniform and complete a short quiz will be offered a patch (available for $2).

Have your troop book a tour!
Call 828-327-8576.

Patch designed by Piedmont Council BSA for Torn from Home in honor of 100 year anniversary. Girl Scout patch is different.